MOTION TO UNSEAL

The United States, by and through its undersigned attorneys, respectfully requests that the Court unseal the docket for the above-captioned case. Following Defendant's guilty plea on July 6, 2017, he cooperated with the government's investigation. In order to facilitate that cooperation, the parties requested that the case against Defendant remained sealed until such future time when unsealing the case would no longer compromise Defendant's cooperation.

Today, with the entry of Mr. Juan Carlos Castillo's guilty plea in H-18-cr-200, the case against Defendant may now be unsealed.

CERTIFICATE OF CONFERENCE

I hereby certify that on August 30, 2018, the undersigned consulted with counsel for defendant Jose Camacho, who was unopposed to this motion.

/s/ John P. Pearson
Sarah Edwards
Trial Attorney
John P. Pearson
Assistant United States Attorney

Because this motion to unseal references Defendant's cooperation, the government requests that the motion itself remain sealed.

Respectfully submitted,

SANDRA MOSER
ACTING CHIEF
